NRS Chinook Fishing PFD

NRS Chinook Fishing Mesh Back PFD $75

www.nrsweb.com

This product combines a Type III life jacket with a fishing vest. Storage for fly and tackle, leader and tippet, weights and tools is all easily accomplished in the eight pockets. Several other cool features, including rod-holder loops and a plastic pin-on tool-retractor tab add to the vest's functionality.

OUTCAST FISH CAT 10-IR $650

 The size-man raft market is full of models and continues to prosper as options increase and demand soars. The Outcast Fish Cat 10-IR is an economical model that worked equally well as an easy ride from Sportsmans to Ber's Landing on the Kenai River or a technical run on upper Willow Creek from Shalverson Road Bridge to the Parks Highway. At 75 pounds, including the six-piece steel frame, cargo rack and 10-foot portoms, it's easy for one person to portage as well as load and offload the boat from a truck or trailer. There's even adequate storage within the attached pockets and on the cargo rack as well.

PATAGONIA WOMEN'S CAPILENE 2 V-NECK $58
www.patagonia.com
 Patagonia has time and again impressed with the quality of their products and this is another for the once-huge list. Whether you're planning for day-trips, a working lodge stay or for an extended float, be sure to layer-up with these great Capilene garments.

FISH CRISP $9.95

 The tasty, seasoned coating is really great on a fresh piece of halibut, rockfish, lingcod, whitefish or haddock. We especially enjoyed the Cajun variety, and interested parties have the option of Original, Garlic & Butter, Italian or Beer Butter. Simply roll the fish in the coating and pan fry until crisp and golden. The company also makes a gourmet gift product in four options.
